US Route 6 Tourist Association Press Kit

Founded in 2000, the US Route 6 Tourist Association is a nonprofit organization dedicated to preserving and promoting historic US Route 6, America's longest transcontinental highway. Spanning 14 states and 3,652 miles, historic US Route 6 is a vital link to small towns, historic landmarks, and scenic landscapes from Massachusetts to California.

Press Releases

US Route 6 Tourist Association Announces Early Access to Insider Itineraries

US Route 6 Tourist Association Shares Strategic Overview of Mission and Vision

How the US Route 6 Website Supports Advocacy

Our Mission & Specialization

The US Route 6 Tourist Association works to:
Promote historic US Route 6 as a premier travel destination for road trips, heritage tourism, and outdoor adventures.
Preserve the rich history of historic US Route 6 by advocating for the protection of historic sites, businesses, and cultural landmarks.
Support economic development by connecting travelers with small businesses, local tourism offices, and community initiatives.
Provide travel resources & education, including maps, guides, and multimedia content to enhance the historic US Route 6 experience.
Collaborate with local and national partners, including tourism bureaus, historical societies, and government agencies, to further the legacy of US Route 6.

Why historic US Route 6 Matters

America's Longest Highway - Over 3,600 miles of scenic landscapes, historic towns, and unique roadside attractions.
Cultural & Historic Significance - Home to countless historic landmarks, small businesses, and iconic Americana.
Economic Impact - Supporting rural and urban communities by driving tourism and local business growth.

Media Contact & Press Inquiries

For interviews, press materials, or media collaborations, please contact:
Contact Email webadmin@route6tour.com
Contact Phone 509-200-1429
Website URL https://route6tour.com

Join us in preserving and promoting historic US Route 6 - America's hidden treasure waiting to be explored!

Subscribe today and let US Route 6 come to you, one story at a time.

Subscribe to US Route 6 Happenings